

Internship, Food Loss and Waste Reduction, Sustainable Food September 2018

The IFWC is as a non-profit organisation committed to combating food waste from the field to the plate in the catering sector. We work in Europe.

Through the IFWC, our members (companies and organisations) seek to provide collective responses to the issue of food waste. We want to act as a catalyst by promoting collaborative projects that help actors act collectively to co-create impact-based solutions for both our members and the sector. We focus our actions around three pillars:

- DEVELOPING AND IMPLEMENTING ACTION-BASED PROGRAMMES
- PROMOTING COLLABORATION WITHIN THE VALUE CHAIN
- DRIVE DECISION-MAKING TOWARDS SUSTAINABLE FOOD SYSTEMS

If you:

- Are a passionate Master student in sustainability and motivated to work toward sustainable food systems
- Understand corporate responsibility issues and challenges in a highly international companies
- Believe that multi-stakeholders collaboration is key to achieve global positive outcomes
- Are convinced that we need to restore value to food, from the field to the plate in order to effectively fight food waste

WE ARE WILLING TO MEET AND TALK WITH YOU.

Internship Description

Mission	We are seeking a highly motivated and capable intern to join our projects team. This is where all the action is; this is a fantastic opportunity to be right at the heart of the Coalition, learning about and working on the various strands of our projects work. All our projects aim to create awareness and change behaviors that lead to reduced food waste. It is also about re-creating the value of food. Further, it is to quantitatively understand food waste metrics and the value generated as a result of actions within the value chain. You will work in close collaboration with the IFWC project manager. Your main responsibilities will include, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Co-ordinate, guide and implement the adopted action plans including planning and implementation of projects- Help the IFWC members track project deliverables and follow
---------	---

	KPI's <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Constantly monitor and report on progress of the project to all stakeholders- Lead an active and specific trends and information monitoring- Submit ideas and develop proposals to enrich projects You will also participate to the IFWC internal communication, help in drafting content for the newsletter to raise the IFWC profile within our members organisations.
Position	You report to the International Food Waste Coalition project manager and work closely with Coalition Members and stakeholders of the projects.
Pay	€ 900/month
Location	Position is based in Paris
Duration	6 months min. With an ideal start date by beginning of September

If you would like to apply for this opportunity please send a covering letter explaining your interest in and suitability for the role; and attach a copy of your CV.

Please send to: Thomas.candéal@internationalfoodwastecoalition.org

And visit our website: internationalfoodwastecoalition.org

Thank you.